

NOISE ABATEMENT

The Club reminds all pilots to please adhere to all published noise abatement procedures. As well, the areas of White Rock and Tsawwassen are particularly noise sensitive and pilots should try to avoid overflying these areas wherever possible. We have received a number of complaints asking why pilots must fly over these areas. Our recommendation is to avoid these increasingly noise sensitive communities if at all possible (shown in Red below).

